

6th Grade Teaching Position

The 6th grade will be a self-contained classroom with a maximum of 24 students. The lead teacher is responsible for teaching religion, reading, writing, math, science, and social studies as well as supervising the class during lunch and recess. The teacher works in cooperation with our special education coordinator and reading specialist who assist students that are struggling with reading and math. The students have other teachers for PE, library, music, art, and German.

General Teacher Job Description

Grace Lutheran School – River Forest, IL

Classroom Environment

A GLS teacher must establish a culture of cooperation and respect within the classroom. This includes but is not limited to...

- Creating a positive, supportive space where all students feel welcome and emotionally safe, including
 - o Interactions between teacher and students
 - o Interactions amongst students
- Being able to monitor and maintain classroom behavior in a positive, constructive manner so that everyone can learn
- Establishing relationships with students that allow you to get to know them beyond their academic performance
- Organizing and managing classroom procedures effectively
- Arranging the physical environment to complement the learning atmosphere

Planning and Preparation

A GLS teacher must be well prepared for delivering the lessons of the day. This includes but is not limited to...

- Demonstrating command of the subject matter
- Selecting instructional goals and differentiating to meet the needs of diverse learners
- Developing a plan and method for evaluating student work in line with instructional goals
- Using student performance data in preparation for instruction

Instruction

Instruction at GLS should take on a variety of forms based on the lesson being taught. Each lesson should include...

- Communicating clearly the objective and purpose of the lesson
- Communicating clear directions and procedures within the lesson
- Keeping all students involved in the lesson
- Providing a summary of key points of the lesson

Over the course of various units, instruction should include but not be limited to ...

- Using materials outside the textbook to enhance learning
- Using technology to enhance learning
- Monitoring student progress and using formative assessment to adjust instruction
- Using a variety of forms for summative assessments.

Communication

A GLS teacher must display effective verbal and written communication skills with students, parents, colleagues, and administration. These include but are not necessarily limited to...

- Delivery of lessons that students understand
- Ability to communicate classroom expectations with students
- Weekly written communication with parents
- Phone calls or e-mails to parents when student work or conduct warrants it
- Maintain a teacher web page

Professional Responsibilities

A GLS teacher must take care of the following professional responsibilities...

- Maintain current and accurate student records
- Participate in professional development to keep curriculum and instructional practices current
 - o Attend conferences, read journals, view webinars, etc.
- Collaborate and communicate professionally with parents
- Collaborate and communicate professionally with co-workers
- For full-time teachers, regular attendance at faculty meetings and participation on faculty committees

As an educator in a Christian school, a GLS teacher is also expected to...

- Establish a caring relationship with each student
- Share personal faith with students and colleagues
- Have words and actions that exemplify Christian conduct
- Attend church and school events in support of students