

RESPONSIBILITY

April: Love Your Planet	Spend time outdoors, and take in all there is to notice, experience, and enjoy. Connecting with nature is a great way to grow your love for your planet, strengthen your sense of responsibility for your planet.
---	---

PROJECT IDEAS

Inspiration to get you started! Choose from the list, or come up with your own idea.

ELEMENTARY	MIDDLE SCHOOL
Get outside and notice things. Birds, bugs, mud, dirt, puddles, nests! Make a nature journal.	Get outside and notice things. Birds, bugs, mud, dirt, puddles, nests! Make a nature journal.
Design and do an outdoor scavenger hunt with friends.	Design and do an outdoor scavenger hunt with friends.
Gather and put out nesting materials for birds. (resources here and here )	Gather and put out nesting materials for birds. (resources here and here )
Do an outdoor art project.	Do an outdoor art project.
Create an art project using materials from nature/outdoors.	Create an art project using materials from nature/outdoors.
Create a sidewalk chalk obstacle course (or build an obstacle course!).	Build an outdoor obstacle course.
Start a few seedlings (windowsill or outdoors), and care for them as they sprout and grow.	Start a few seedlings (windowsill or outdoors), and care for them as they sprout and grow.
Set up an outdoor reading/drawing/chill spot/tent for yourself (and hang out in it).	Set up an outdoor reading/drawing/chill spot/tent for yourself (and hang out in it).
Camp outside.	Camp outside.
Go play and explore in the woods.	Make a recycling poster or recycling area/bin for your house. Teach your family how to properly recycle at home.
Eat lunch outside. Eat breakfast outside. Eat dinner outside.	Explore the woods. Find a trail, or create a new one. Build a fort out there.
Read a book or doodle in your sketchpad under a tree.	Eat lunch outside. Eat breakfast outside. Eat dinner outside.
Make a recycling poster or recycling area/bin for your house. Teach your family how to properly recycle at home.	Read a book or doodle in your sketchpad under a tree.